

Recruitment of volunteers

Questionnaire for volunteer (conversation)

- How do you understand volunteering?
- Why do you want to volunteer?
- What people, events, and experiences have led to your interest in volunteering?
- What do you hope to get out of the experience?
- What do you hope to contribute?
- How do you see this affecting your life?
- How can you prepare for the experience?
- What can you do to get the most out of the experience?

Is necessary to find a right motivation for each volunteer and regarding to this - appropriate tasks for each persons ability and competences.

Tools used to involve volunteers:

- “Friends talk” (invite friends of people who are already participating);
- Asking for help in concrete tasks, which at times lead to interest of volunteering;
- Giving out information at events of organisation;
- Advertising in mass media;
- Information in web pages of different organisations and for different target groups;
- Information in libraries as a cultural centres of rural areas;
- Use of internet portal as a database of activities and projects of voluntary work. It will provide possibilities to connect volunteers and the ones requiring volunteer work, and other concerned parties.
